

Safety Manager

This is an exciting opportunity to bring your passion, experience and commitment to the task of managing ZERO HARM in Fulton Hogan. We are dedicated to being recognised as an industry leader in health and safety, quality and environmental and need someone as passionate as us to lead our Wellington team.

As the Safety Manager you will have primary responsibility for leading health and safety within the Wellington business in conjunction with overview leadership and management of others providing delivery of quality, training and environmental management. In addition, you will be pivotal in providing leadership to the wider central zone SQTE advisors. Crucial to this role is the assurance to the regional and central zone team and the championing of safety, (plus quality, training and environmental) management through visual onsite leadership, audits, initiative, plans, regulatory and statutory requirements, systems and processes, continuous improvements and sound business planning.

You will bring to the role a qualification in health and safety management coupled with safety management experience at a senior level. You will have proven leadership and people skills in health and safety coupled with excellent written and verbal communication skills, initiative, and strong organisational skills. Previous staff management is desirable to lead a team of others who are focused on training, quality and environmental aspects within the region and commitment to, knowledge and empathy of these aspects is essential.

If you think you have the attributes to lead us through 2010 and beyond then contact us today!

Successful applicants will be required to undergo a medical and drug screen.

This position is readvertised, previous applicants will be reconsidered and need not apply.

Applications close Friday, 26 March 2010.
