National Health and Safety Manager

At Coca-Cola Amatil NZ we are passionate about people and as a business we have come a long way in developing an excellent platform for safety, We now want to take it to the next level and implement a zero harm safety environment.

To do this, we have established the role of National Health and Safety Manager reporting to our Managing Director based in Auckland. The role will also work alongside our GM of People and Performance and partner with our Senior Leaders.

We are seeking applications from highly experienced Health and Safety Managers with proven experience in a manufacturing/FMCG or related business operating at a senior level. You must be able to demonstrate your ability to influence strategically and implement leading practices throughout the business.

It goes without saying that candidates will possess superior knowledge of all aspects of health, safety and wellness in New Zealand and be seen as a leading expert in the field. You will need to be tenacious, diplomatic, a real influencer and a strong relationship builder.

If you are ready to embark on a once in a life time project with a company that is committed to invest then don't delay, apply now by visiting www.cokecareers.co.nz or for a confidential discussion please contact Martin King, Talent and Reward Manager on 09 970 8155.
