

DAY ONE Tuesday 15 June

9.00AM	Welcome from the MC and opening remarks from the Platinum Sponsor, Department of Labour
9.15AM	International keynote Functional Leadership Above and beyond technical expertise lies leadership. What aspects of leadership must a HS&E professional master to be successful? Based on the leadership course taught at Harvard University – to which Dr Fulwiler is a key contributor – this session aims to bridge the gap between your technical abilities and the leadership skills essential for achieving your organisation's objectives. Dr Richard Fulwiler President of Technology Leadership Associates, Cincinnati, USA
10.10AM	The Bigger picture Where does health and safety sit within the economic performance of New Zealand and what do the CTU see as the key health and safety challenges over the next 2 to 3 years? Peter Conway Secretary, NZCTU
10.50AM	REFUEL & STRETCH BREAK SPONSORED BY SIEMENS
11.10AM	Black to the future How will Dame Carol Black's groundbreaking report into occupational health in the UK influence how we do things in New Zealand? Dr Geraint Emrys Chief Adviser, Health & Safety, Workplace, Department of Labour
11.45AM	Legal update What's been happening on the legal front in the last year? Trends are analysed and interesting cases highlighted. Grant Nicholson Partner, Kensington Swan Garth Gallaway Partner, Duncan Cotterill
12.35PM	RE-ENERGISING LUNCH SPONSORED BY CATALYST RISK MANAGEMENT
1.20PM	The return of experience rating After a decade without it, experience rating within the ACC system is to be reintroduced. How will experience rating and the associated concept of risk sharing work, and what impact will they have on workplace injury prevention and return to work outcomes? Dr Keith McLea General Manager, ACC Insurance Group

2.00PM	Parallel Session Absence management as an indicator of organisational health What impact does employee absence have on an organisation's operation? Catalyst Risk Management talked to 100 businesses that employ at least 100 staff to find out how absence is measured, what is done about it, and its effect on productivity and stress. Edmond Otis President Edmond Otis & Associates	Icepak Coolstores: Investigation and prosecution A case study of one of the most significant Department of Labour investigations in recent years, including the decision to charge a director of one of the two companies prosecuted Keith Stewart Workplace Practice Leader, Department of Labour
--------	---	---

2.45PM	REFUEL & STRETCH BREAK SPONSORED BY SIEMENS
3.10PM	How to make a compelling health & safety business case What information is the Chief Executive looking for and what will convince them to sign it off? Ken Rivers Chief Executive Officer, The New Zealand Refining Co Ltd

3.55PM CONFERENCE CLOSING REMARKS

DAY TWO Wednesday 16 June

7.45AM	NZ SAFETY NETWORKING BREAKFAST (INCLUDED IN REGISTRATION, ALL DELEGATES WELCOME)
9.00AM	Opening Address Hon Kate Wilkinson, Minister of Labour (TBC)
9.15AM	National keynote Psychology at work - empowering performance Successful organisations recognise the need to make the most of their best asset, their people. Psychology is increasingly being used in the workplace to develop resilient staff who can easily adapt to change, and to help boost productivity through increased motivation and engagement. Derek introduces a rather different view of stress and resilience using an evidence-based approach leading to commercially relevant workplace strategies. Dr Derek Roger The Challenge of Change
10.10AM	Case Study: Return to work - a personal story When HR Manager Rhonda Wilson helped design her company's well-being and return to work procedures she had no idea that she would soon be diagnosed with cancer and have to take time off for treatment. She shares her story and the personal, professional and management lessons learned during her graduated return to work. Rhonda Wilson Senior HR Manager, Recreational Services

10.45AM	REFUEL & STRETCH BREAK SPONSORED BY SIEMENS
11.05AM	Climbing the ladder to zero harm A finalist in the practitioner of the year category at last year's New Zealand Workplace Health & Safety Awards, Mark champions cultural change with a strong focus on innovative methods to engage people. Mark Taylor Consultant, Safety Matters (NZ) Ltd
11.45AM	Work is changing – can you keep up? The world of work is changing with a speed unparalleled in human history. OHS professionals must embrace these changes or risk losing credibility and relevance. Mike outlines changes which you need to keep up with. Mike Cosman Managing Director, Impac
12.30PM	RE-ENERGISING LUNCH SPONSORED BY CATALYST RISK MANAGEMENT
1.10PM	How does New Zealand stack up? A perspective from a New Zealand-bred practitioner now working in a global market. David Tregoweth Group Risk & Zero Harm Director, Brambles Limited
1.45PM	Research report - Shaking the tree Paul Reyneke's highly original and successful approach to workplace safety within Foodstuffs Auckland's warehousing and logistics operation was acknowledged at the 2009 New Zealand Workplace Health and Safety Awards. Since then he has extended this approach into the company's retail stores as part of a doctoral research project sponsored by the company. How has his unconventional thinking worked in this new environment? Paul Reyneke H&S Manager, Foodstuffs (Auckland)
2.30PM	REFUEL & STRETCH BREAK SPONSORED BY SIEMENS
2.45PM	Making difficult conversations easier Sometimes it's not what we say - but how we say it! Frequently, speaking up (or down) "the chain of command" is tricky. And yes, some people really are just difficult to talk to in any situation. The crucial skill? Being able to communicate effectively and persuasively - when emotions are involved, results are important - and the outcome matters! This fun, interactive, closing session will teach you to be more successful, with more people, more often! Edmond Otis President Edmond Otis & Associates
3.30-3.45AM	CONFERENCE CLOSE & PRIZE DRAW

SAFEGUARD
National Health & Safety Conference

15 - 16 June 2010
SKYCITY Convention Centre

